National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

All Canadians and all orders of government have a role to play in reconciliation. The Federal Government has announced September 30th, 2021, as the first National Day for Truth and Reconciliation and a Federal statutory holiday;

The Township of Armstrong does hereby commit to recognizing September 30th, 2021, as the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation and National Orange Shirt Day by honouring and sharing the stories of residential school survivors, their families, and communities.

On this day, and during Truth and Reconciliation Week (September 27 – October 1) our residents are encouraged to expand their knowledge as part of their individual reconciliation efforts. This day provides an opportunity for reflection and learning about the history and lasting impact of residential schools. For information and learning please visit <https://nctr.ca> and continue the important conversation.
